Sweet Potatoes

Ran McCollough was exhibiting some huge sweet potatoes Monday. Three potatoes dug from one hill, weighed 22 pounds, and the largest of the trio weighed nine and three-quarter pounds.

Mr. McCollough says he has three acres of unusually large potatoes on his father's old home place in the Pleasant Run community about nine miles north of Elba. He says they are so big and numerous he can't estimate the number of pounds or tons they will yield. According to Mr. McCollough, his and George Morris' experience with the boll weevil was very satisfactory and the past season they raised so much cotton that they decided to get rid of it. However, he explains, the boll weevil catches won't fatten his hogs, so he and Mr. Morris have diverted their attention to the raising of sweet potatoes. In other words, they believe in diversified farming.

Kills Marauders

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Folson had been missing from time to time until their flock of ten had dwindled to four or five. On Monday night they heard a disturbance in their poultry house and upon investigation found two large "possums" breaking havoc upon their hens. Mr. Folson shot mamma and pappa possum. He found the possum headquarters under some brush in a fence corner. Bob was seen in town the next day displaying the proceeds of his night slaying activities.

Hunters Should Help

Forest Ranger W. J. Conway, with the Department of Conservation, division of forestry, informs us that there always more fires during hunting season. Mr. Conway calls attention to the fact that hunters need provide houses for our game and it is to the hunters interest to help protect the woodland. He urges all hunters to take extra precautions with matches, cigarettes and campfires.

Old Clipper

J. D. Smith who makes a hobby of keeping records, showed us another issue of the Clipper dated October 24, 1913. It had gone through the flood of 1929 and was considerably damaged but was still readable. The Clipper files were destroyed by the flood and this old copy is one of the few surviving dated prior to that time.

The reason Mr. Smith has preserved this old copy is that it contains an account of his marriage. He and Miss Ethel Farris were married on October 22, 1913 the ceremony being solemnized at the Methodist Church with the pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. D. P. Lee officiating. It is said to be one of the first if not the first wedding held in the then new church.

Conry Mathews the best man and Misses Alice Boyd and Elizabeth Farris were bridesmaids. L. W. English and Marion Dunn served as ushers. Mrs. F. T. Rainier presided at the organ and R. C. Bryan was groomsman.

Many out-of-town visitors were present for the event.

Football Dinner To Be Held At School Lunchroom Nov. 16

Proceeds To Be Used To Pay Off Debt For Claying Field

A football dinner has been scheduled for Tuesday night, November 16th at the school lunch room. Plans are being made to have several out-of-town speakers including well-known college coaches.

The purpose of the dinner is to raise money to pay the debt incurred by the hauling of dirt to raise the level of the field last fall. This dirt has greatly helped the field and given Elba a good place for all sports in the future.

Money was borrowed for the project and efforts to arrange for repayment have met with no success.

All persons in Elba who are interested in football are urged to help pay this debt and to join in the dinner November 16th.

Fireworks Licenses To Sell For $200

The matter of shooting and selling fireworks in Elba was taken up by the city council at the regular monthly meeting last Monday night. Mayor Mullins took the position that it is impossible to enforce an ordinance against shooting firecrackers and fire works in the city and that to ban their sale in town would only drive dealers to the city limits. From this rule, it was decided to set the sale of licenses at $200 each dealer. The GI exemption up to $35 will apply toward the license.

Elba Tigers Defeat Hartford For First Win Of Season

Jacobs Runs Kickoff Back 75 Yards For Initial Elba Score

For the first time in six starts this season, the Elba Tigers were able to break into the win column as they gained a 14 to 12 victory over the Geneva County High Bulldogs. Hartford lost its first performance, the Tigers were rated as underdogs and a loyal band of followers enthusiastically received the unexpected win after the favorites had apparently put the game to rest.

Coach Lon Wise's Bulldogs slammed over a quick touch-down in the first quarter and added another in the second as they completely dominated the first half. They missed both tries for extra points and led 12 to 0 at the half.

But the Tigers came to life at the beginning of the third quarter when Lamar Jacobs took the kick-off from his 20 yard line and behind good interference ran 80 yards for a touchdown. It was a fine example of blocking and running and the extra point was picked up on a line plunge.

The Tigers, who frequently refuse to punt on fourth down, got caught without a safety man on a Hartford play in the fourth period and the ball rolled to the Elba 17. But the Tigers, encouraged by the seven points they had scored, continued to press forward.

Thurmond, candidate for the Dixiecats or States Rights party, carried four states with 38 electoral votes.

The Democrats also won control of both houses of Congress.

Henry Albrison, 62-year-old resident of Enterprise, was elected to the senate with 49 seats.

In the house, the Dixiecats won 23 seats to give them 33. Thirty of these are members of the 80th Congress who were not up for re-election. In the House of Representatives, the Elba 29, Jacobs picked up 7

Democrats elected 256 for a gain of 27 while the Republicans elected 172.

Stokes was shot in the chest with a 12 gauge shotgun wielded by Albrison who had borrowed the gun from his brother on the pretext of going squirrel hunting.

The killing grew from ill feelings that arose when Stokes entered a complaint that particular citizens in his community had come home in the back of his store and become rowdy and asked Deputy Sheriff J. B. Simms to prevent their further use of the premises for the game.

Albrison was lodged in the county jail after the shooting. A preliminary hearing will be held next week.

The killing was hardfought throughout and was one of the best games that have been played on the local field.

The Tigers ran true to form by allowing the opponents to pile up a lead in the first half and then came back strong in the second. The Bulldogs made seven first downs in the first half, but the Tigers made seven after intermission while their opponents made only one. Hartford completed two of eight passes attempted while Elba attempted seven and made no completions. Elba fumbled 3 times and lost 30 yards on penalties while Hartford was penalized 65 yards.

Stiles, Jacobs and the two boys Billy Jacobs and Ben Johnson, battles staved for Hartford.

Both school bands and majorettes gave impressive drills and concerts during the half and added to the enjoyment of the occasion with their spirited music throughout the evening.

Gets Away From All

"I was just getting away from an argument with my wife," Gilbert Duggins explained to Pittsburg police when they found him hanging from a third story ledge.

When the officers arrived they saw that his wife had tied him to a chair and was holding a picture of his wife in his hand.

"I wanted to get away from her," he said. "She found my wife's picture in his wallet."

Funeral Services For J. L. Maddox Held In Enterprise Mon.

The mighty Tirpitz, pride of the nazi fleet at one time, now lies upturned in the water north of Norway, slowly giving up the valuable innards to Norwegian salvagers.

She was blasted out of the war by the British Air Force in 1944.

Sixteen sailors of the ship were killed.

Survivors include: his wife, Mrs. Debra Clark Maddox; five daughters, Mrs. Quinda Bandy and Mrs. Beatrice Walker of Enterprise; and one sister, Mrs. Carroll Warren of Mobile.

Enterprise — Funeral services for Joseph L. (Bruss) Maddox, age 69, were conducted at the Park Avenue Baptist church in Enterprise on November 1st at 2:30 p.m. with the Rev. A. O. Mullins officiating.

Mr. Maddox died Saturday afternoon in Gibson's hospital. He was a native of Coffee County and a member of Masonic Lodge No. 170 of Elba. Burial was in the City Cemetery with Masonic salvagers at the graveside. Searcy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include: his wife, Mrs. Debra Clark Maddox; five daughters, Mrs. Quinda Bandy and Mrs. Beatrice Walker of Enterprise; and one sister, Mrs. Carroll Warren of Mobile.

Four years later the ship looks like a brown, bloated whale bottom-side up. Close up an observer can see men scrambling over the hull, taking tools down through the hordes of musical instruments, reverberations that slipped off the hull before she sank.

Salvagers have already got out and sold one diesel engine.

Now they are extracting miles of valuable copper wire. In one compartment they discovered a III, was in for more trouble too.

In court his wife slapped him across the face because she said she found his wife's picture in his wallet.

After the arraignment, police took the woman's picture in his wallet.

PARTY INVITATION
A young son came home with an invitation to a birthday party to be given for the son of one of the town's leading families. Since it came on an R. S. V. P., his mother sent a note of acceptance immediately.

Sonny attended the party. Late in the evening he enveloped himself in the coat of his nine-year-old sister Mary.

"I didn't get any envelope," said Sonny nonchalantly replied.

Things happened fast when a five foot circular saw rigged to the rear wheels of a car burst at Melrose, Mass. One piece of the saw went through a schoolhouse roof half a mile away; another passed through the window of a nearby house, showering two occupants with glass.

A 15 pound chunk of the flywheel ripped into a house a quarter mile distant. No one was seriously injured.

BLOCKHEAD
Like many another celebrity, temperamental actor Richard Mansfield was no hero to his neighbors. One day he rang for a servant. When the latter did not respond promptly to the call, the actor became irritated.

"What's the matter?" he asked.

"Just where it always has been," said his valet, appearing in the doorway. "Your shoulders."

"Did you really?" she exclaimed.

Zion Chapel

On last Thursday evening a large crowd met at Zion Chapel School for an evening of fun. They were not disappointed.

The list of entertainments for pleasure and profit included a box supper, popularity contest, six large surprise boxes, a quiet auction, and the sale of chicken sandwiches. Free hot coffee was served in the lunchroom when the boxes were opened.

Such a 3-year-old Frank Wilks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wilks almost "stole the show" again with his skillful drawings and his ability to "draw a ticket."

Winners in the popularity contest were Miss Verlyn Crenshaw, of the fifth grade, and Mack Moore of the ninth grade. They were crowned by Prof. Farus after pictures were made of the other contestants and the committees in charge: Mrs. Rufus Wilson and Mr. Lloyd Crook.

Winners in the grades were: First grade, Larry Clowers and Shirley Smith; Second grade, Murray Baker and Betty Neal Swain; Third grade, Maxine and Wimberly Clark; Fourth grade, Pat Whitehead and Joan White; Fifth grade, Charles Wambles and Verlyn Crenshaw; Sixth grade, Melvin Arnold; Seventh grade, Jimmie Jackson and Erma Nell Bundy; Eighth grade, Laverne Sawyer and Edna Calhoun; Ninth grade, Mack Moore and Virginia Carr.

This was the house I was born in, it had a front porch and used to have many horses from cellar to door. I knew Mother liked it for the house we had the bopped some day to buy it.

Considering she was a widow, my mother did well in providing for the two of us. My father's heart was Uncle Clem's. He was old, feeble, bent over; he carried a cane most of the time I know. I think he was good. I always remembered him as very full of pep and fun. He was good and kind and always thinking of things to do.

MOTHER never knew where he came from, until after he was gone. She first saw him when he was at the door into the living room and "entered" him into her home.

Mother was cool to him at first. She was always suspicious of strangers. But I saw the kind of love he had for his family. When asked if he had a room to spare, he said he had a little money, enough to pay for his room, and bed.

He would spend nearly all his time with me. Sometimes he would forget what we were playing, and sit with a kind of smile, looking away. Then he would wake up to what we were doing. He told me to call my mother Mom and I guess she didn't mind.

To Ole Pearl Hatten: This is to notify you that John Raymond Hatten has filed Bill of Complaint in the court against you and you are required to come in, answer, plead or defend by the 29th day of November, 1948, or a decree pro confesso may be taken against you thirty days thereafter.
